Mrs. Gestrich's Summer Fav

My favorite book of the summer was Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus by Dusti Bowling. I love the main character Aven Green. I admire her positive outlook on life and how she overcomes the challenges she faces. Aven was born without arms but has never let that hold her back from anything she has wanted to do. The book also has a mystery that Aven and her friends set out to solve and I love a good mystery!

Mrs. Kewriga's Favorite Book

My all time favorite book is "Out of My Mind" by Sharon M. Draper. Suspense. Competition. Bullying. Family. This book has all of the makings of a great book. I love this book because Melody, the main character is so inspirational. Melody has Cerebral Palsy and uses a wheelchair to get around and is unable to speak. Although she is unable to speak, she has a lot to say. Other people don't realize how brave and smart Melody really is, until one small thing changes her life forever!
